What Shall I Take?

Is the anxious question asked by those who are not feeling well—have no appetite—are out of sorts—have no energy—feel tired out. Perhaps you are feeling sick yourself!

Many medicines are recommended, doctors consulted—(in many cases) much money spent in this search for health—and yet it can all be avoided. Wise people commence at once taking and are soon made well and strong. Nearly every prescription given by physicians for such troubles contains IRON—which some people say they cannot take. Try Brown's Iron Bitters—it is warranted not to give headache, stain the teeth or cause constipation as all other Iron Medicines do.

Genuine has the crossed Red Lines on the wrapper. BROWN CHEM. CO. BALTO. MD.

IT'S "JUMBO'S" WAY.

He starts before you get your seat—It is a cunning trap To send you flying off your feet In some old lady's lap. I got on board the car today, Had just stepped through the door, When, in his customary way, He sent me to the floor.

The motorman grinned, but I did not: "I'll make complaint," said I: "I'll make your old position hot—A grin was his reply. He stopped again, and up the aisle A lovely maiden came; Her lips half parted in a smile, Cheeks tinged with rosy flame.

Now, will that fond turn on the crank, To cause this maid mishap? Coincidence! He gave a yank And popped her in my lap. I caught her, else she would have gone Clean through the window glass. A space of Paradise, I own, But it was brief, alas!

She found a more congenial seat, Sweet maid was mortified; She looked a moment at her feet Embarrassment to hide. When finally I made retreat, The motorman grinned, for he Supposed he'd eased my angry heart And made amends to me.
